Hyman, of this city, which is to take place Monday evening, at 6 o'clock, at Mr. Reingannum's residence, 318 West Eighth street, Cincinnati, O. The bride and groom will be at home after Oct. 13, at 229 North Liberty street, this city.

The first large reception of the season was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. J. J. Cooper and daughter, Virginia, and Carolyn. Their beautiful home on North Meridian street was further embellished with a profusion of bright autumn flowers and scarlet geraniums, and the orchestra added its pleasing strains to the hum of voices.

The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. John W. Kern, Mrs. Jackson Landers and Mrs. Charles Jacobs, of Minneapolis, formerly Miss Anna Myers, of this city, who is their guest.

The ladies were handsomely attired, many new fall costumes being noticeable for their richness.

Three Minor Accidents.

Henry Primus, colored, who lives in the rear of 311 Indiana avenue, is a helper at Chandler & Taylor's foundry, had his right leg crushed by an engine-belt falling on him, yesterday morning. Henry Bodd, sixty years of age, tried to jump on a Big Four train, at Lafayette, early yesterday morning, but fell and broke his right leg, just above the ankle. He was brought to this city and taken to the City Hospital by Plummer & Buchanan, who also took Primus to his home. Charles Hare, of 581 South Illinois street, and an employee at the car-works, fell under a car, at 5 o'clock last evening, which, passing over his right foot, crushed it. He was taken to his home by Kregelo.

His Money Saved Him.

Benjamin Alexander, of Killmore, accidentally shot himself, at the Union Station, about noon yesterday. He threw his overcoat over the back of the car-seat, and a revolver in one of the pockets was discharged, sending a bullet into his left side, near the lung. The ball passed through a package of money in the pocket, and prevented serious result. He was taken to the Surgical Institute, where the wound was pronounced not dangerous.

CHURCHES AND PASTORS.

The Remodeled and Refurnished Auditorium of the Second Presbyterian Church.

The main audience-room of the Second Presbyterian Church, which for several months has been in the hands of the painters and glaziers, will be reopened to-morrow. The new frescoing, ethereal-glass windows and fresh carpets make the interior doubly attractive. It is quite appropriate that this substantial congregation, just at the close of its first half-century, should take this notable step forward. Many friends will wish for Dr. McLeod and for his flock a still larger assembly in the future. Dr. McLeod has been a resident of the city for five years only, but his prominence in social, literary and humanitarian circles, aside from his abundant labors in all Presbyterian enterprises in this city, prove how rapidly he has grown in the confidence of the community. No doubt large audiences will aid to-morrow in the reopening of the Second Church. The pastor will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening.

The Ladies' Luncheon.

The ladies of the Methodist churches of this city met in the lecture-room of Roberts Park Church yesterday morning and appointed their committee for the second week of the ladies' luncheon. While special churches will have prominent supervision on different days, the work of the week will be undertaken by the denomination. A meeting of the Methodist ladies is held on Tuesday afternoon, 2 o'clock, in the lecture-room of Roberts Park Church.

Religious Notes.

Dr. J. E. Gilbert will preach at Roberts Park Church to-morrow morning.

The Rev. A. W. Mann, general missionary, will hold a service for deaf mutes in the chapel of Christ Church at 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

Rev. Lois G. Hafford will read a paper on "Enthusiasm for Humanity" at Plymouth Church to-morrow morning. There will be no service in the evening.

Rev. David MacDill, D. D., of Xenia (O.), Theological Seminary, author of theological works in the absence of the pastor, will preach in the United Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. H. J. Talbot, who was at one time pastor of the Meridian-street M. E. Church, will preach there to-morrow. The new pastor, Dr. Cleveland, will not occupy the pulpit until to-morrow week.

Rev. C. H. McDowell, pastor of the South-street Baptist Church, will occupy the pulpit at Central-avenue Methodist Church, to-morrow, the pastor, Rev. Dr. Ford, being absent at conference, which is in session at Liberty.

The Wheelmen's Tournament.

The prospects are for a good list of entries and a good attendance at to-day's bicycle tournament at the fair grounds. There are a number of races and an excellent programme, and as the number of wheelmen in the city is constantly increasing the affair ought to be a success. The racing will begin at 2 o'clock. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged to the grounds, with no extra charge for the grandstand. The races, which are fourteen in number, will be run in the following order:

1. One-mile novice, 2. Five-mile State championship, 3. One-half mile heat, 4. One-mile club championship, 5. Two-mile lay, 6. One-fourth mile heat, 7. One mile, 8.
